Mister & Miss Gay Arlington Pageant

Welcome to the 7th annual Miss Gay Arlington Pageant. This packet contains the information you need to register for the pageant and prepare yourself for the competition scheduled for Friday, April 28, 2017 at Freddie's Beach Bar and Restaurant in Arlington, VA. The Pageant has two divisions (Mister & Miss). Information for both division is contained in this packet.

The theme of the 2017 pageant is Alice in Wonderland. There will be 4 categories for both divisions. Each will be judged on creativity, design and structure of apparel/costume, stage presence, appearance, and overall look. The categories are:

- 1) Presentation –The contestant must display their creative interpretation of any character from Alice in Wonderland (except the Queen of Hearts or the Mad Hatter).
- 2) Talent;
- 3) Evening Gown/Formal Wear; and
- 4) On Stage Question.

The following information is enclosed in this packet:

1. Official rules and regulations
2. Pageant category explanations
3. Official contestant application
4. Acknowledgement and Waiver
5. Talent Category Information

The deadline for returning the completed application to the Director of the Mister & Miss Gay Arlington pageant for consideration as a contestant in this contest is 5:30 pm Friday, April 28, 2017. However, completed applications can be, and are encouraged to be, turned in at any time in advance of this deadline. The maximum number of contestants is six in each division (e.g. six in Mister and six in Miss). The first six contestants in each division who submit completed applications and fees will be the contestants in the pageant. Contestants who turn in their packets in advance will be allowed to "edit" their "Talent Category Information" sheet until the deadline listed above.

If you have any questions regarding the either division of the contest or the application process, please do not hesitate to contact the Director of the Mister & Miss Gay Arlington Pageant, Daniel Hays at (703) 254-3841 or missgayarlington@agla.org.

Good luck in your quest for the 2017 Mister & Miss Gay Arlington titles!

Additional prize items may also be added to the prize packages.

- 4) Previous winners of the Mister & Miss Gay Arlington titles are not eligible to compete in division that they previously won.
- 5) The winners of Mister & Miss Gay Arlington are obligated to appear in persona wearing the Mister & Miss Gay Arlington crown/medallion and sash to represent the title and AGLA at the 2017 Capital Pride Parade, and the annual AGLA gala (if held). However, if you have concerns about your ability to meet this criterion, please contact Daniel L. Hays at missgayarlington@agla.org as alternative arrangements may be able to be made if special circumstances warrant a waiver of this criterion.
- 6) The winners of the Mister & Miss Gay Arlington titles are obligated to organize (unless special circumstance warrant a waiver), with the assistance of the AGLA, a benefit show to help raise funds to benefit a community organization of their choosing, and is strongly encouraged to also hold a benefit show to help raise funds for AGLA.
- 7) The winners of the Mister & Miss Gay Arlington titles will conduct themselves in a professional manner at all times while holding the titles of Mister or Miss Gay Arlington.
- 8) Unless otherwise excused by the Director of the Mister & Miss Gay Arlington Pageant, all contestants are required to attend a contestant's meeting. This meeting is your opportunity to go over any issues or questions you may have before the pageant.
- 9) Contestants will be judged in the following categories: Presentation, Talent, Evening Gown/Formal Wear and On Stage Question.
- 10) The contestant's order in the contest will be determined during the meeting by a random drawing of contestant's names.

- 11) There will be a total of five (5) judges.
- 12) Olympic scoring is used in the Mister & Miss Gay Arlington Pageant. That is, the highest score and the lowest score for each contestant will be dropped. Only the remaining three (3) scores for that category will be counted for each contestant.
- 13) For each category, a judge can award up to 100 points. Using Olympic scoring, the highest total point value a contestant can receive for a category is 300 points.
- 14) Each category is evenly weighted; that is, no category is more important than any other. If a tie exists, the scores from the Evening Gown/Formal Wear category will be used to break the tie. If one still exists, then the scores from Talent category will be used and if a tie still exists, then scores from the Presentation category will be used.
- 15) The theme for the Presentation category is Alice in Wonderland. No backups are allowed for the Presentation category and the contestant must display their creative interpretation any character from Alice in Wonderland (except no contestant may portray the Queen of Hearts or the Mad Hatter). Contestants may choose any version of Alice in Wonderland (original Disney version, cartoon version, or Tim Burton version, etc.) as their inspiration.
- 16) Any type of Talent presentation is acceptable with the following exceptions: no Talent presentation may cause harm to, or damage the facility or patrons in any way. No explosive devices, fire in any shape or form, smoke, strobe lighting, or animals (live or dead), etc. can be used at any time.
- 17) You are allowed no more than seven (7) minutes for your Talent presentation (EXCLUDING SET-UP/BREAK-DOWN – up to two minutes are allowed for both set-up and break-down).
- 18) Any contestant that goes over the allotted time will have their music immediately ended by the DJ and asked to leave the stage. It is the contestant's responsibility to ensure that their Talent presentation is within the specified time limits. Because of the number of contestants competing, no exceptions will be made to these time limits. Failure to abide by the time restrictions or to leave the stage in an acceptable form for the next contestant will result in a score of zero (0) for that category.
- 19) All music must be turned in to the Director of the Mister & Miss Gay Arlington pageant no later than at the contestant meeting. You must turn in two copies of your Talent audio recordings. Only audio CDs will be accepted. Each CD must be clearly marked with the contestant's name, track title and track number. The Mister & Miss Gay Arlington Pageant is not responsible for scratched CDs and the quality of the recording could effect the scoring of your Talent category.
- 20) All contestants will walk to the same music for the Evening Gown/Formal Wear and Presentation categories, to be chosen by the Director of the Mister & Miss Gay Arlington Pageant.
- 21) Each contestant is allowed up to four (4) backups for their Talent presentation. The names of the Talent backups must be provided when submitting the contestant application. Any changes to backups must be provided to the Mister & Miss Gay Arlington staff prior to the beginning of the pageant.
- 22) A Contestant may only have one (1) assistant in the dressing room.
- 23) All assistants and/or helpers are required to pay the cover charge ($10), at the door. Contestants are not required to pay the cover charge.
- 24) Any contestant, found using, or in possession of any illegal substance, or violates any law regarding the use or abuse of alcohol or drugs will immediately be disqualified and required to immediately leave the premises.
- 25) Any contestant's assistants or helpers, found using, or in possession of any illegal substance or violates any law regarding the use or abuse of alcohol or drugs will be required to immediately leave the premises. Disorderly conduct by any contestant and/or their assistants or helpers will not be tolerated and will be grounds for immediate disqualification.
- 26) Stealing or vandalism of any contestant's property of the facility by any contestant and/or their assistants will not be tolerated and will be grounds for immediate disqualification and removal from the premises.
- 27) Any contestant, helper, or assistant found to have accepted a gratuity of any kind (i.e. money, flowers, toys, plush, etc.) during the pageant will be disqualified from the pageant and required to immediately leave the premises.

- 28) Any contestant, assistant, or helper asked to leave the pageant and premises will not have their admission or entrance fee(s) refunded.
- 29) If the contestant who wins either the Mister or Miss Gay Arlington 2017 pageant is found to be representing the title in a demeaning or inappropriate manner or fails to represent the title during the required appearances, the AGLA Board of Directors will notify the winner that the title is being removed and the winner is no longer eligible to receive the second payment of the award money. Additionally, within seven (7) days of being informed that the title has been removed, the winner must return the crown/medallion to the Director of the Mister & Miss Gay Arlington Pageant.
- 30) If the title is removed by the AGLA Board of Directors the winner must return the Mister & Miss Gay Arlington crown/medallion and sash upon the request. The crown/medallion will be returned in the same condition it was provided less normal wear and tear. Should the crown/medallion be damaged or destroyed at anytime during the winner's reign, the winner is responsible for the full replacement cost of the crown/medallion.
- 31) If the title is removed from the winner of the Mister or Miss Gay Arlington Pageant, AGLA Board of Directors may bestow the title, crown, and remaining winnings to the First Runner-up.
- 32) The winner of the Mister & Miss Gay Arlington Pageant must provide notice to AGLA of any other crowns or titles they intend to run for during her reign as Mister or Miss Gay Arlington.
- 33) At no time can the Mister or Miss Gay Arlington crown/medallion be worn with any other crown/medallion.
- 34) All disagreements, misunderstandings, or arbitration shall rest solely with the AGLA Board of Directors.

Pageant Category Explanations

Both the Mister & Miss divisions of the Mister & Miss Gay Arlington Pageant consists of four (4) equally weighted categories: Presentation, Talent, Evening Gown/Formal Wear and On Stage Question. Each category will have five (5) judges that have been selected for their expertise and you may receive a maximum of 100 points from each judge for each category. The highest and lowest score will be deleted and your score will be the sum of the remaining three judge's score for you for that category. The highest possible total score a contestant can receive for a category is 300 points.

Presentation

This category is very important, as it is the first time that the judges and the audience will see you. Your costume may be any representation of the theme; however the contestant must display their creative interpretation of any character from Alice in Wonderland (except the Queen of Hearts or the Mad Hatter). Contestants may choose any version of Alice in Wonderland (original Disney version, cartoon version, or Tim Burton version, etc.) as their inspiration. Remember to be creative, clean, and have fun. You will have music provided for this category so you should not bring your own. You will have two minutes to present your costume to the judges. All props used for your interpretation must be carried and held by the contestant at all times. Anything that goes out on stage with the contestant must come back with the contestant. Please note that this is not a talent category. The contestant will be judged on how well they present the theme.

The category will be judged as follows:

- | | |
|----------------------------|------------|
| • Representation of theme: | 0 to 20 |
| • Condition of costume: | 0 to 20 |
| • Creativity: | 0 to 20 |
| • Stage Presence: | 0 to 20 |
| • Overall Look: | 0 to 20 |
| Total possible points: | 100 points |

The total time allotted for this category per contestant is two minutes.

Talent

This category is to show the contestant's talent and their ability to entertain. No more than four (4) backups may be used during the Talent category and the backups must always be the same four people. Backups are not required for the Talent category. The contestant and backups can make use of the entire stage.

For this category, the judges may look for the following:

- Does the talent entertain?
- Does the talent hold the audience's attention?
- Does the talent connect with the audience?
- Is the talent well staged?
- Does the contestant mime (lip-sync) well (or sing well if a live vocal)?
- Was any dancing executed well?
- Is the contestant the primary focus of the talent or did the set, props or backups detract from the contestant, rather than enhance the contestant?
- Did the costume enhance the talent or detract from the talent?

- Is the costume in good condition?
- Is the contestant able to handle the costume?
- Are foundations or pads showing?

The category will be judged as follows:

• Entertainment value	0 to 20
• Condition of costume	0 to 20
• Creativity	0 to 20
• Lip sync or Vocal Skill	0 to 20
• Overall look	0 to 20
Total	100 points possible

The total time allotted for this category per contestant is seven (7) minutes (excluding set-up and break-down). No tipping is allowed during this category. Please see the “Rules and Regulations” for the specific rules governing this category.

Formal Wear (Mister)

Formal wear should be the most distinguished outfit you wear during the pageant (i.e. black tie, tails, regular or modern tuxedo, no black jeans). It should complement you and make a statement of your personal style and taste. No strings should be anywhere on the formal attire. There should be no tears in any part of the fabric and the garment should be stain and wrinkle free. It is your responsibility to take care of your formal wear and keep it in perfect condition during the pageant.

For this category, the judges may look for the following:

- Does the formal wear fit the contestant?
- Is the style of the formal wear complimentary to the contestant?
- Is the formal wear in good condition? Are there any missing stones, sequins, or threads showing?
- Does the contestant demonstrate poise, do they model the attire well, do they demonstrate good stage presence and personality in this category?
- Does the contestant make eye contact with the audience?
- Is the contestant comfortable or nervous?

The category will be judged as follows:

• Overall Condition:	0 to 20
• Style:	0 to 20
• Fit:	0 to 20
• Stage Presence:	0 to 20
• Overall Look:	0 to 20
Total	100 points possible

The total time allotted for individual judging in this category per contestant is two (2) minutes. Contestant will walk individually and then will be presented as a group. All contestants will walk to the same music for the Evening Gown/Formal Wear category to be chosen by the Director of the Mister & Miss Gay Arlington Pageant. Please see the “Rules and Regulations” for the specific rules governing this category.

Evening Gown (Miss)

Evening gown will be the most elegant outfit you wear during the pageant (i.e. full length not a cocktail dress). It should complement your figure and make a statement of your personal style and taste. The dress accessories should be in perfect condition. No strings should be anywhere on the dress unless the style warrants it. There should be no tears in any part of the fabric and the gown should be stain and wrinkle free. It is your responsibility to take care of the gown and keep it in perfect condition during the pageant. Tattoos, while allowed, should not detract from the contestant's presentation.

For this category, the judges may look for the following:

- Does the gown fit the contestant? Is the gown the proper length for the style?
- Is the style of the gown complimentary to the contestant?
- Is the gown in good condition? Are there any loose beads, sequins, or threads showing?
- Is the contestant able to handle the gown?
- Are foundations or pads showing? Is any boy hair or male genitals showing?
- Does the contestant smile and walk well in this category?
- Does the contestant make eye contact with the audience?
- Is the contestant comfortable or nervous?
- Is the contestant's hairstyle appropriate for the gown? Does it compliment the contestant?
- Is the contestant's makeup done well?
- Do the contestant's jewelry, shoes, and other accessories compliment them and their gown or detract from the presentation?

The category will be judged as follows:

• Overall Condition:	0 to 20
• Style:	0 to 20
• Hair:	0 to 20
• Stage Presence:	0 to 20
• Overall Look:	0 to 20
Total	100 points possible

The total time allotted for individual judging in this category per contestant is two (2) minutes. Contestant will walk individually and then will be presented as a group. All contestants will walk to the same music for the Evening Gown/Formal Wear category to be chosen by the Director of the Mister & Miss Gay Arlington Pageant. Please see the "Rules and Regulations" for the specific rules governing this category.

On Stage Question:

This is your time to show the judges your capability to speak and answer questions. You will not be provided with the question prior to the pageant. You should answer the question with poise, confidence, and stature. Contestants will select an envelope on stage to determine the question they will answer. This category will be directly after evening gown, so you are to stay in your gown for this category.

The category will be judged as follow:

• Answer of the Question:	0 to 20
• Poise	0 to 20
• Speaking Ability:	0 to 20
• Stage Presence:	0 to 20
• Overall Appearance:	0 to 20
Total	100 points possible
