Pageant Category Explanations

Each category will have five (5) judges that have been selected for their expertise and you may receive a maximum of 100 points from each judge for each category. The highest and lowest score will be deleted and your score will be the sum of the remaining three judge's score for you for that category. The highest possible total score a contestant can receive for a category is 300 points.

Presentation

This category is very important; as it is the first time that the judges and the audience will see you. Your costume may be any representation of the theme, the contestant must creatively display their interpretation of the Motown era full of soul and the epitome of rhythm and blues. Remember to be creative, clean, and have fun. You will have music provided for this category so you should not bring your own. You will have one minute to present your costume to the judges. All props used for your interpretation must be carried on to the stage by the contestant. Additionally, anything that goes out on stage with the contestant must come back off the stage with the contestant. Please note that this is not a talent category. The contestant will be judged on how well they present the theme.

Evening Gown

Evening gown will be the most elegant outfit you wear during the pageant (i.e. full length not a cocktail dress). It should complement your figure and make a statement of your personal style and taste. The dress accessories should be in perfect condition. No strings should be anywhere on the dress unless the style warrants it. There should be no tears in any part of the fabric and the gown should be stain and wrinkle free. It is your responsibility to take care of the gown and keep it in perfect condition during the pageant. Tattoos, while allowed, should not detract from the contestant’s presentation. The Miss Gay Arlington pageant will provide an individual to escort the contestant to the stage; however, at the contestant’s option they may chose to be escorted by their contestant’s assistant. The contestant’s assistance may fluff the gown, once the contestant is on the stage; however that is the only time during the category when anyone other than the contestant may be on the stage.

For this category, the judges may look for the following:

On-Stage Question:

This is your time to show the judges your capability to speak and answer questions. You will not be provided with the question prior to the pageant. You should answer the question with poise, confidence, and stature. Contestants will select an envelope on stage to determine the question they will answer. This category will be directly after evening gown, so you are to stay in your gown for this category. Miss Gay Arlington is a representative of the Arlington-Gay & Lesbian Alliance (AGLA), as such being familiar with the organization’s mission is a good idea should any question mention AGLA.

The category will be judged as follow:

- Answer of the Question: 0 to 20
